Key Leader Wrap

On Duty and Ready to Serve —In his presentation for the Martin Kiwanis Club on April 24, Kiwanian and Martin Fire Chief Jamie Summers shared important information about the makeup and services of the City of Martin Fire/Rescue/EMS Department. Among many other facts and statistics, Chief Summers said that the three fire stations in Martin provide complete and equal coverage for citizens. He said that 42 employees on three shifts work 24 hours on duty and 48 hours off duty. Some of the numbers show just how busy this department is: in 2023, there were a total of 2,604 calls with 82 percent being medical. He also said that there were 2,200 ambulance calls. Chief Summers explained that funding and grants from the National Fire Safety Council helped support numerous fire prevention programs for adults and children. He also discussed state funding and fees charged for services in rural areas.

May Birthday/Anniversaries

John Mayros.....May 19

Hey, it’s Xochi. I attended Key Leader this weekend at Lakeshore in Eva, Tennessee. This weekend we had lots of fun activities including making posters, coming up with group names and chants for our groups, low ropes, group bonding, and ice breakers. We learned many things about how to be a better leader and how to help others be leaders as well. The meals were also very good. Snacks were given during breaks and we were allowed free time to go outside or to the cabins to relax. Key Leader was a lot of fun, and I recommend it to anyone who is interested. It’s a great experience and you get to make a lot of friends and lots more memories. (Above pictures contributed by Xochi Gutierrez with exception of sunrise shot by Vincent.)
