“Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world, one child and one community at a time.”

Today’s Program

Alex Britt — Weakley County Administrator of Elections
“Election Security”

Committed to Educational Success—Brian Smith, a member of the executive committee for the Charger Foundation, described the goals of this community-based organization when he gave a presentation for Kiwanis on May 15. Smith said that the group formed in 2018 and provides support for students, teachers, and administration by making available additional educational materials for the four Martin schools—Martin Primary School, Martin Elementary School, Martin Middle School, and Westview High School. He said that grants are available for special projects and that there are numerous ways to get involved with the Charger Foundation. He also said that the Martin community has been overwhelmingly generous in donations that are key to helping provide the best academic education and experiences for the students in Martin schools.

Service Hours: Kiwanis Lt. Governor Kimberly Jackson has shared information about reporting service hours. She said, "I would include your service hours for volunteer work. As a Kiwanian, you can represent the club at any community event. It shows just how many hours are spent 'giving back.'" As club secretary, Anna reports service hours to Kiwanis International. Please share volunteer hours completed at any Kiwanis event, at We Care, with Martin Public Library, with AARP Tax Aide, etc. We should also count hours in preparing for events such as Pancake Day and the Christmas Parade.

Kiwanis had a social at El Vallarta in Fulton, KY, on Wednesday, and 19 people came! What a good time we had! We had 10 members bringing 9 guests. The youngest guest attending was Maddie Parr, 11, and the oldest attending was our own Kiwanian Mary Elizabeth Bell, a young 90! We all enjoyed the little adventure to a neighboring town. When there are five Wednesdays in a month, we take one day for a social.
