“Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world, one child and one community at a time.”

Today’s Program

Bass Bronson, UTK Agriculture and Natural Resources Extension Agent

Last Week — keeping elections safe and secure: Alex Britt, Weakley County Elections Administrator, discussed election procedures and security when he spoke at the June 5 Kiwanis meeting. Britt works with the Weakley County Election Commission, which is charged with overseeing the implementation of election procedures. He answered numerous questions and stated that, according to a study done in 2022, Tennessee is listed as number one in election integrity. He encouraged Kiwanians to consider applying to become poll workers by going to GoVoteTN.gov for additional information. Britt distributed information about the state and federal primary and state and county general election on Aug. 1 and noted that the state and federal general election will be on Nov. 5.

Fishing Derby Report: 90 children ranging in age 7 months to 15 years braved threatening skies early and attended the fishing derby last Saturday. Ten Kiwanis members (Steve Lemond, Sara Sieber, Mary Morgan, Linda Ramsey, David Sudberry, Ann Gathers, Jayne Parrish, Earl Wright, Anna Clark, and Jim Clark) assisted Adam Reddick and Louie Rechi from Martin Parks and Recreation in the successful, happy event. 81 fish were caught; the longest was 18.5 inches, the heaviest 4 pounds 2 oz, and 24 fish weighed in excess of 1 pound.
