"Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world, one child and one community at a time."

Today's Program

The Santa's Village Experience
(Martin Parks and Recreation)

City Hall does Christmas! one is going to the 2024 Christmas parade and the other to Santa's Village and the Santa's Village Experience. Can you tell which is which?

Parade Wrap: Sixteen Kiwanis members, two Key Club members and two guests worked Monday on making the Christmas Parade a huge success. As Katy noted in her email today "I think our Winter Wonderland theme was appropriate given the flakes we had falling during lineup and the beginning of the parade! It was like a Hallmark movie out there!! I know it was cold and windy, which makes me even more grateful for your help and support.

Martin Kiwanis Calendar

- Dec. 4 The Santa's Village Experience (Martin Parks and Recreation)
- Dec. 5 Coffee orders due
- Dec. 11 Brianna Jimenez, Interim Director UTM Child and Family Grant Programs and Director of the Margaret N. Perry Children's Center
- Dec. 18 Christmas Get-Together, Trinity Presbyterian, 5:30 p.m.
- Feb. 22 Kiwanis Pancake Day, Martin Elementary School

Steve and I decided that we had over 90 vehicles in the parade last night and around 70 entries! That is a wonderful turnout. It was so much fun riding in front of Santa's float and seeing the joy on the children's (and adults') faces as we approached. I think the community enjoyed the parade despite the chilly weather!

Some parade pictures: (from top left) lining up to enter University Street, Red Dragon Martial Arts marches on, one of many quality floats, downtown Martin from Martin Public Library, and Anita Airee guides traffic into the line towards University Street.
